

Colorado Student Election Judge Program 2009

A message from Secretary of State Buescher.....

Expand Your World of Influence

Are you interested in shaping world events? Voters elect our leaders and governing bodies whose decisions influence events in the state of Colorado, the United States and, as recent events have proven, the world.

Student Election Judges, share firsthand in those events on election day assisting voters as they exercise their constitutional right marking their ballot choices for candidates and issues.

Contact your local election official today to find out how to be a part of this grass roots lesson in democracy.

Bernie Buescher, Colorado Secretary of State

ACTIVE CITIZENSHIP:

Even before you turn 18 and can register and vote you can take part in the election process.

BENEFITS

- You will be paid.
- Practical experience serving your community.
- Election Judge experience looks great on a resume or college application.
- Take part in a rewarding activity while learning about the democratic process!

QUALIFICATIONS

To qualify as a student election judge you must be:

- 16 years old and either a junior or senior;
- Physically and mentally able to perform your duties;
- U.S. citizen on November 3;
- Free of any conviction for fraud or election offenses;
- Not a family member of a candidate on the ballot;
- A resident of Colorado and
- Able to attend training.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

As a student election judge you will serve alongside other adult election judges at a polling place in your county.

Some of the duties student election judges assist with are:

- Opening and closing the polls. (Election judges work from 6:00 a.m. to about 8:00 p.m. on Election Day.)
- Ensuring that qualified voters are permitted to vote.
- Checking in and processing voters.
- Assisting with the registration of those people who are qualified and who have not registered to vote before Election Day.
- Distributing ballots.
- Helping voters who need assistance.
- Answering voters' questions.
- Maintaining order in the polling place on Election Day.
- Obtaining results after the polls are closed.

HOW TO APPLY:

Apply early! If hired as a student election judge, you will have training prior to Election Day.

- Fill out the application on the bottom of the page.
- Make sure your parent or guardian and school official signs the "Permission" portion.
- Send the application to your county clerk.
- Check with your school official or administrator to find out the school policy on requesting an absence from school.
- You will receive a call from your county clerk letting you know if your application has been approved. The clerk will inform you of the date and time of the training class .
- Work at the polls on Election Day!

Remember... When you turn 18 you may register to vote and serve as a regular adult election judge!
